

3. Correct. The answer is false. X-inefficiency refers to the higher costs that prevail in government owned or regulated industries because of the lack of discipline of shareholders and financial markets.