

3. Incorrect. The answer is false not true. X-inefficiency refers to the higher costs that prevail in government owned or regulated industries because of the lack of discipline of shareholders and financial markets.