

4. Correct. The answer is true. From the first order conditions you can derive the result that the monopolist should price according to $P = MC / (1 - 1/|\epsilon_p|)$. From this equation it is easy to see that raising marginal cost or lowering the price elasticity will raise the monopolist's optimal price.