

30. Correct. The answer is false. The worldwide recession of 1981, energy conservation, and fuel switching as the result of HIGH energy prices REDUCED consumption for oil and gas causing the prices for oil products to FALL sharply.