

19. Correct. The answer is false. Energy content of the natural gas does not solely depend on the hydrocarbon components (such as CH_4 , C_2H_6 , C_3H_8 and so on), but also the other gases contained in natural gas, such as nitrogen, helium, and sulfur dioxide. Combustion of these gases in natural gas, both lowers the energy content and cause pollution.