

40. Correct. The answer is true. Vertical integration or unified governance protected the investment in specific assets in the absence of regulation.