

12. Incorrect. The answer is false not true. Zeebrugge, Belgium, is a major gas hub with throughput capacity of 40 billion m<sup>3</sup>/year; it has an LNG terminal, and due to its strategic location major gas companies have developed gas trading contracts based in Zeebrugge.