

7. Incorrect. The answer is true. CO<sub>2</sub> is a dominant greenhouse gas contributing to global climate change because of its volume and build up in the atmosphere. Other greenhouse gases include methane, nitrous oxide, and chlorofluorocarbons.