

16. Correct. The answer is false. There is a relationship between social marginal cost and private marginal cost. In this case social marginal cost should always be greater than private marginal cost with a negative externality (i.e. $MC_{\text{soc}} > MC_{\text{priv}}$).