

24. Correct. The answer is false. An externality can be internalized if the two firms merge and/or the bargaining cost is zero.