

5. Correct. The answer is false. Confucian dynamism places high importance on long term commitment and respect for tradition. Extremist Jihad is the point of view that resists modern capitalism and clings to religious beliefs, ethnic traditions, local and national communities. Jihad elements in a culture increase the risk for capitalists doing business in them.